

Official Biography of:
Nichole Humphrey
*First Lady of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church

Nichole Humphrey was born in Columbus, OH. She is a graduate of Whetstone High School and Capital University. Nichole received two bachelors degrees, one in Psychology and the other in Criminology. She recently graduated from Antioch University with a masters in Special Education.

Lady Humphrey is the wife of Elder Lance E. Humphrey, Senior Pastor of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church and the proud mother of daughter, Alexa Nichole. First Lady Humphrey plays a very important role alongside of Pastor Humphrey.

She is a part of the Ministerial Staff, works with the Youth Department, Women's Ministry and serves as Minister of Music at Mt. Zion. Lady Humphrey is a gifted psalmist and songwriter. She has written numerous songs for gospel artists.

She has taught at various workshops throughout the city, including workshops dealing with families, women and marriage. Her call is to preach the word of God, and she received her license to preach the Gospel on August 12, 2008.

Through her preaching she has been known to stop the enemy from shattering the lives of the women of God who have been hurt, broken and abused.

Lady Nichole's favorite scripture is Psalm 3 and her statement of faith is:

"I've been through the storm and rain, but I made it."
